My Lord, most gracious, I beg You to come and cultivate my will that it becomes Your Will, stripping it and transforming it to be nothing else but Your Divine Will; come and kill everything in me that offends You so that by this clement gesture of Yours, in the day of Judgement You would find me faultless and agreeable in Your sight;

Jesus, because You have died out of Your exuberant love for me, to give me life and happiness and be able to share Your Kingdom and Your glory, mark me as Yours for eternity;

* To persecute and condemn God's intervention is a mortal sin because they are condemning His Mercy. What is written here below is taken from S. Catherine of Siena. The Father dictates to her:
"Men are continually being scandalised by My Works, which are all just, and all performed in truth through love and Mercy. With this false judgment, and with the poison of envy and pride, the Works of My Son were slandered and unjustly judged, and with lies did His enemies say: 'This man works by virtue of Beelzebub.' Thus wicked men, standing in self-love, impurity, pride and avarice and founded in envy, and in perverse rashness with impatience, are for ever scandalised at Me and My servants....

favour with Me; ah, Vassula, I brought a seed out of Egypt, to plant it where My enemy took away the earth's supply of food; with tenderness and care I cleared a space for it, I anointed it, and planted it; anxious to save My people from ruin I fertilized its soil; it took root and grew into a tree; its branches stretched as far as the sea; its fruit, abundant and succulent; although it was visited often with thunder, hurricanes and fiery tempests, it did not waver; within three years and a few days My enemy trembled and shuddered; blazing with anger, heavy with threats, he raised an army to sift its fruits with the sieve of destruction to harness them in a bridle, but I gathered each one of them and hid them in My Heart; often as men have attacked My tree they have never overcome it, for My Triune Blessing was on it; ah.... and how often ploughmen have set to work on its back, making furrows to break it, but My right hand shattered their yoke,

The Lord showed me in these past months that I should keep in retreat and enter even more now in holy contemplation.
This is also the fruit of union; what more sublime could there be than to be in the embrace of the Holy One? what more pleasing to God could there be than allowing ourselves to be possessed by His Majesty and to learn how to possess Him. The repose of this peace will bring growth in the divine union, strength to continue what the Father laid out for me, zeal and thirst for the salvation of souls;

I noticed too that God was now turning His Gaze more on the services I had rendered Him in spite of my frailty and that His loving instructions were focused on what I should still be doing; the messages in other words were becoming more personal although now and then, God would address His entire Church;

I should have liked also to add that the horror in my soul of being praised by people was becoming so intense that many a times I was at loss with myself and besides myself. Even when I would guess that a person focuses more on me than on the Words of our Divine Master this alone would make me withdraw even more, going even closer in the embrace of God's Love; this special attention given to me sometimes was like a vomit in my eyes.... God made it now clear to me that any distraction by the world and by people could become a harmful influence that would draw me away from Love's Embrace; the Place I wanted to remain.

I received oceans of graces, oceans of gifts, but have I praised my God enough? have I been negligent on His gifts?

My Vassula, stand firm on what I am all the while I tried to guard myself against this worldly fervour because from the beginning You made me understand my utter wretchedness and how I was the least of them all; Your Words were like a hammer hammering in my soul, engraving them on my heart; now and then, You reminded me of my nothingness and that if I dared lift my chin even for just a moment, I would lose Your Heart and all the divine graces too.

In Your exuberant Love You held me close to Your Heart and protecting me in this way You made me understand You, and that by remaining a nothing, You would take so much pleasure in this effacement, because You would do ALL and be ALL!

From my very early childhood the devil used to appear to me like a growling black dog ready to tear me into pieces, but Your all-powerful action

20. 1. 99

The Lord gave me a vision: I saw some young boys between 8-10 years of age playing in a very dangerous and foolish way. They were walking on the edge of a ledge which surrounded a tall building of about 7 floors high. Some of the boys were hiding behind a water pipe-line as though playing hide and seek, all of these games were played from outside the building. Below them were meters of void. Another boy even jumped from his window to just barely make it to the neighbouring building in the window. I shut my eyes, not bearing the thought that I might see one of them miss his step, slip and fall. Considering the height, the fall would be deadly. I was frightened for them and I could not understand why they risked so much their life by playing so dangerously, then I understood why they were fearless; it
